THE FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JESUS PRAYED

In our Gospel passage today, we read what the secret is to Jesus' ministry – prayer.

A sentence that stands out is, "In the morning, long before dawn, Jesus got up and left the house, and went off to a lonely place and prayed there."

These few words reveal how important prayer was for Jesus. This is the key to His ministry on earth – spending time in prayer with His Heavenly Father.

Just before the quoted sentence, we hear how busy a man Jesus was – healing, spending time with the sick, casting out demons, crowds gathering around Him, etc. Then, Mark brings it all back to its essence – prayer.

Jesus wanted to leave very early, to avoid the crowds and have time to pray.

Repeatedly in the Gospels, we hear about Jesus going to spend time on His own with His Father in prayer. Jesus nurtured His own spiritual connection with His Heavenly Father, and carefully looked after His own prayer life.

If Jesus could find the time to care for His spiritual life, we surely can, too.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading

Job experienced months of misery and troubled nights (Job 7:1-4, 6-7).

Psalm

Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted (Psalm 147).

Second Reading

I have become all things to all, to save at least some (1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23).

Gospel

Jesus cured many who were sick with various diseases (Mark 1:29-39).

OUR COVER ARTWORK
CHRIST ON THE MOUNT OF OLIVES

Josef Untersberger

Our cover artwork by Austrian artist, Josef Untersberger, shows Jesus praying, overlooking the city of Jerusalem.

Untersberger purposely used a limited color palette with only greens (symbolic for new beginnings), blues (symbolic for calmness and harmony), and purples for Jesus' cloak (conveying the royalty of Christ the King.)

The painting emphasizes Jesus' human nature and features His mind in action, in the midst of the physical demands of His ministry.

This is not a heroic, victorious Christ. He is portrayed as a humble, simple human Christ, with a tired facial expression.

A very soft, glowing light is emanating from Jesus. He is barefooted, a sign of humility and also conveys that He has been there for a long time ... praying.

PLEASE PRAY

Please remember the names on our Parish Prayer lists in your own private prayers during the week.

Prayer is our most powerful tool for healing and we hope that this will allow us to more consciously remember St. Catharine's parishioners who are in poor health, have recently passed, or are in the Armed Forces.

Thank you.

THINGS TO REMEMBER WHEN YOU HAVE UNANSWERED PRAYERS

When it seems as though God is silent, it's easy to believe we've done something wrong, or we're praying to a far-away God, too distant from our troubles to get involved. Job, from our First Reading today, certainly may have felt this way.

When burdens are heavy, we are more prone to despair. This is why Jesus tells us that we "ought always to pray and not lose heart," Luke 18:1. He knows that we are tempted to lose heart by what may seem, at the time, like an unanswered prayer.

1. God hasn't forgotten about you.

All of us have been let down by someone we placed our hope in, and the memory of pain rushes towards us at the slightest hint of disappointment. But, God is not like us humans.

The truth is found in the fact that God has promised "never to leave or forsake" us (Deuteronomy 31:6), and He isn't a God who goes back on His promises.

You may have been neglected or pushed aside in the past. Regardless of the way you were mistreated, unloved, taken for granted or wounded, there is a God who saw the injustice and felt the depth of your broken heart. Don't worry, He hasn't forgotten about you!

2. Doubting does not make you a bad Christian.

One of the greatest theologians of all time, C.S. Lewis, became a Christian in the process of trying to disprove the existence of God.

While some would say that harboring doubt is evidence of a shallow faith, the Bible tells us the exact opposite.

When Jesus appeared to the disciples, He did so in the presence of Thomas, one who refused to believe the rumors of Jesus' Resurrection. Jesus, rather than publicly condemning Thomas, or scolding him for not accepting the story as truth, instead invited Thomas to touch the places He had been wounded as proof.

God is not intimidated by our questions. He has an infinite measure of grace to pour over us when we come to Him, heart heavy with concerns. He only asks that we bring our burdens to Him, rather than carry them alone.

Be honest with Him about your pain and frustration. David poured out his heart to God in the Psalms. Job expressed deep anguish in the midst of incredible grief and suffering. If you're confused and hurting, tell Him. Tell Him what you're really thinking and feeling. He hears your prayers even in the dark times when He seems removed and silent.

Trust Him and don't give up. He has a reward for your faithfulness.

3. There is something for you to learn, right now.

Open your eyes to the possibility that God has something for you to learn right now.

It's no coincidence that we often grow the most during a time of struggle. Loss and pain have a way of waking us up to what is really important.

Rather than postpone your growth, begin searching for present grace. God promises to give it.

(kindly, continue ...)

4. What comes next will be better than what came before.

God promises to take us from glory to glory, but that doesn't mean we won't have struggles or hard times. His Words that He will never leave or forsake us are meant to always remind us that, He is with us.

And when you get where you're going, there is a very good chance that the joy you feel will overwhelm any sadness or pain you felt along the way.

The power of prayer is the confidence that we are being guided and cared for, even when that guidance and care are not immediately apparent.

And, in the final analysis, prayer is not about results. It's about our relationship with God. God wants us to interact with Him, in order that we might know Him, trust Him, and remember Him in all that we do.

"Some of God's greatest gifts are unanswered prayers."

Garth Brooks

WHY DO BAD THINGS HAPPEN TO GOOD PEOPLE?

By Harold S. Kushner

Innocent people do suffer misfortunes in this life. Things happen to them far worse than they deserve – they lose their jobs, they get sick, their children suffer. But when it happens, I do not believe it represents God punishing them for something they did wrong.

We don't know why one person gets sick, and another does not, but we can only assume that some natural laws which we don't understand are at work. I cannot believe that God "sends" illness to a specific person for a specific reason. I do not believe in a God who has a weekly quota of malignant tumors to distribute and consults His computer to find out who deserves one most.

"What did I do to deserve this?" is an understandable cry from a sick and suffering person, but it is really the wrong question. Being sick or being healthy is not a matter of what God decides that we deserve. The better question is, "If this has happened to me, what do I do now, and who is there to help me do it?"

There may be a sense of loss at coming to this conclusion. In a way, it is comforting to believe in an all-wise, all-powerful God who guarantees fair treatment and happy endings, who reassures us that everything happens for a reason.

But, there ought also to be a sense of relief in coming to the conclusion that God is not doing this to us.

If God is a God of justice, then He can still be on our side when bad things happen to us. He can know that we are good and honest people who deserve better.

If we believe our misfortunes are none of His doing, we can turn to Him for help. Our question then will not be, "God, why are You doing this to me?" but rather, "God, You see what is happening to me. Can You help me?"

We will turn to God, not to be judged or forgiven, not to be rewarded or punished, but to be strengthened and comforted.

Put your hope in the Lord, for with the Lord is unfailing love and with Him is full redemption.
(Psalm 130:7)

How many times have you said, "I trust God," or "I believe in God." Then, when the trials come, you run to Him asking, "Why me?" If so, you are not alone.

It is hard to have hope when you are facing difficulties, a terminal illness, the loss of a loved one. But, God tells us to put our hope in Him.

When we do, we get unfailing love from the Lord, our Good and Wonderful Father, in return. And the love of God can heal the deepest wounds and give peace in the most difficult circumstances.

Whatever you are struggling with, ask God to show you His mercy and His inexhaustible and limitless love.

GOD'S HANDS

Have you ever imagined what God's hands may look like? My own father's hands were enormous, strong and calloused. Over the years, he used them to build, to fix every broken thing in our house. Yet, his hands were also gentle and caring. He took good care of his children and protected us.

Imagine what God's hands must be like! They must be larger, stronger, and more gentle and caring at the same time.

When we lose hope, have problems or worries, we must learn to put our problems "in God's Hands." We must let go of our problems, stop worrying and trying to resolve them ourselves. We must depend on Him to take care, protect and keep us safe.

We must believe, trust, and allow Our Lord to rescue us, hold on to us, and supply our wants and needs; to resolve our problems as only He can.

"God, I am worried and I don't know what to do. I leave this problem in your hands, please take care of it for me," should always be the first words that come to mind.

He is waiting for you and saying, "Trust me. I can handle anything you give me." You can trust Him with your life and your future.

We must open our hearts and minds in love, close our eyes in faith and trust, and ask God to take care of it.

And, He will.

*Lord,
I bow to You with a humble heart and fall into Your strong arms. Keep my feet firm and my heart strong no matter the turmoil around me.
Seal me with Your loving touch and protect me from this storm.
Oh Loving Father,
in You I place my faith.
Amen.*

THE 2024 CARDINAL'S ANNUAL

STEWARDSHIP APPEAL

We are often reminded by Sacred Scripture that in order to love one another, we must share the blessings which God has provided to us. As Catholics, we are called to serve our neighbors with compassion and humility.

We are asking every family to participate and make a sacrificial pledge to the 2024 Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal. This year, our goal, set by the Archdiocese is $153,600.

The success of The Appeal – helping those less fortunate, spiritually nurturing our youth, caring for our retired priests and religious, growing the many ministry programs that serve our communities – depends on us.
